LOHRI CELEBRATION

Date: 13th January, 2018

No. of Participants: 10

Objective:

- To observe the celebration of Punjabi Festival - Lohri.
- To make students understand the importance of the Festival.

Brief report of the activity:

Punjabi farmers observe Lohri as their New Year's celebration. Farmers give thanks for their crops before the harvest starts and pray to Lord Agni for a bountiful harvest on this day. Students perform the Lohri rituals collectively, guided by our very own Principal Dr. Neelam Arora and HOD of Bammc Department Sangeeta Makkad. Non-Punjabi participants also enjoyed seeing everyone together and taking part in the joyous events. Lohri is the festival of harvest for the farmers. It is celebrated with a lot of fun and rituals and festivities by students & staff hand in hand .

Outcome:

- Non - Punjabi students learned about the rituals that are performed during Lohri festival.
- They learnt about the importance of Lohri in Punjabi's tradition.
- Students were enlightened about many aspects of Punjabi's festival celebration.
